Those having trouble with their eyes, ears, nose and throat should consult the noted Dr. Seymour, No. 1116 K street, Lincoln, Neb.

Mrs. Lillie Walsh came down from Lincoln last Saturday and is visiting her mother and sister, Mrs. Wm. H. and Miss Helen Hoover.

There will be services at St. John's Episcopal church, Nemaha, on Sunday at 3:30 p. m. The choir from Auburn will assist. Everybody invited.

COAL COAL

Both hard and soft coal for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Work has been commenced on the foundation for the Odd Fellows building, sand and rock are being hauled, and the work will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a dinner and supper at the Minick hall on election day. Only 15 cents will be charged for a splendid meal. Everybody is invited to help. The proceeds will be applied on the pastor's salary.

Leslie Woodward, who has been at Lawton, Oklahoma, for two or three weeks, returned home Thursday night. Leslie is not greatly stuck on Oklahoma. He says it is a good country to starve in if a man hasn't plenty of money.

John H. Dundas, editor of the Auburn Granger, gave us a social call Thursday. We are pleased to learn that Mr. Dundas is talking of publishing a history of Nemaha county. It would be a valuable as well as an interesting work and we hope he will go ahead with the enterprise.

Republican Rally at Nemaha

Judge John S. Stull and the candidates on the republican county ticket will speak at Hoover's opera house Wednesday evening, October 30. The Champion band will be present and there will also be good vocal music. Everybody is invited.

The memorial services held at the opera house Sunday night, in honor of President William McKinley, were fine. The opera house was crowded but the best of order was maintained. The choir consisted of Mrs. Emily Gilbert, pianist; Mrs. Mellinger Titus, Miss Lillian Minick, and Messrs. G. N. and Ed Sanders. The services were opened by singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee." Rev. D. B. Lake then offered prayer. The choir then sang "Lead, Kindly Light." Rev. Lake preached an eloquent memorial sermon, giving a sketch of the life of President McKinley and drawing lessons therefrom for the especial benefit of the young. The services closed by singing "America."

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by W W Keeling.

Call in and see us if you want to subscribe for any paper published in the United States.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the result in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. S. W. Gardner of Idaville, Ind., says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he don't care whether he lives or dies. It gave me new strength and appetite. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at Keeling's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.
